Preparation for Secondary Studies (PSS) Programs

• Four Levels (1 – highest; 4 – lowest)
• Students are able to progress through levels as English Language develops
• Each level represents approximately 1 term
• Level 1 includes advanced English skills plus mainstream high school classes
• All PSS programs are specifically designed for high school students
Western Australian Universities’ Foundation Program (WAUFP)

• Developed by top 4 universities in WA (UWA, MU, Curtin U & ECU)

• Designed for international students or Australians who have studied no more than 1 year of study in Australia

• WAUFP comprises a compulsory double subject, English Language & Australian Cultural Studies (ELACS), and 3 or 4 other subjects

• WAUFP is accepted for entry into universities throughout Australia and the world – on application

• The ASC is the ONLY private schooling system offering WAUFP
Packaged Pathways

- ASC International can package General English Programs with Perth International College of English (PICE)
- Programs designed for students with the need for basic English programs prior to moving onto ASC International’s PSS or Secondary Studies Programs.
- Student to complete the PICE entry assessment to determine English level and potential number of weeks in the program.
