

Who should use this form?

You should use this form if you are applying for a student visa or you are a student visa holder, and you:

- are under the age of 18 and intend to reside with your parent/custodian or a relative while you are studying in Australia;
- wish to nominate a person who is applying for a Student Guardian visa to accompany you in Australia;
- want to notify the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) of a change of your guardian.

Note: A separate form 157N Nomination of a student guardian must be completed for each student visa holder or applicant nominating the same person as a guardian.

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete this nomination. Once you have completed this nomination we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Integrity of nomination

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. Please be aware that if you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays and possibly your nomination being refused.

Nominating a student guardian

Complete this form in ENGLISH using BLOCK LETTERS. In order to complete this form you must first read these notes and the information available from the department's website www.border.gov.au

Character requirements

If you will be in the care of a relative in Australia, they must be a relative as defined below, aged 21 years or over (except parent) and of good character. More information on character requirements and penal clearances is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au

A relative is defined as a parent, spouse, de facto partner, a child, brother or sister of the applicant, step-child, step-parent, step-brother or step-sister of the applicant, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew, or a step-grandparent, step-grandchild, step-aunt, step-uncle, step-niece or step-nephew of the applicant.

Welfare arrangements for students under 18 years of age

The department bears no responsibility for welfare arrangements made on a student's behalf. It is the responsibility of the parents or legal custodians of a student under the age of 18 to ensure that the arrangements they make on the student's behalf provide appropriate welfare for the entirety of the student's stay in Australia while they are under the age of 18.

Lodging the student guardian nomination form

If your guardian is applying for a Student Guardian visa, this form should be completed and lodged online together with form 157G (internet) Application for a Student Guardian visa.

If you are applying for a student visa and nominating a guardian to accompany you in Australia, this form should be completed and lodged online together with form 157A (internet) Application for a student visa.

If you currently hold a student visa and wish to change your current welfare arrangements, you will need to complete this form and send it to the nearest office of the department.

To find a location of an office of the department, see www.border.gov.au/about/contact/offices-locations

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose which you have provided them, unless there is legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.
